

Join the fight for food justice!

We want to hear from you! Join the St. Louis Food Policy Coalition in a discussion about healthy food in North St. Louis.

Back in October, we spoke with residents of Berkeley about where they grocery shop, how they get there, and the barriers to eating healthy food in North St. Louis.

We now want to discuss our findings and talk more about strategies to increasing access to healthy food in Berkeley.

April 17th @ 10 am
